GDPR Privacy Notice

William Carey University ("WCU") is committed to safeguarding the privacy of personal data. This Privacy Notice outlines the collection, use, and disclosure of personal data provided to the University by students, faculty, applicants, alumni, donors, research subjects and any and all other individuals disclosing personal data. When data is submitted to WCU, or you use the University's websites and other services, you consent to the collection, use, and disclosure of that data as described in this Privacy Notice.

University Use of Data

WCU collects and processes data and sensitive data from individuals who are students or applicants only as necessary in the exercise of the University's legitimate interests, functions and responsibilities as a higher education institution. WCU also collects and processes data and sensitive data from individuals who are research subjects. 004(e)-5.7(r)y.2()10.6(i)14

- x Archiving: We may share your data and sensitive data for archiving purposes in the public interest, and for historical research, and statistical purposes.
- x Performance of a Contract: We may share your data when necessary to administer a contract you have with the University.
- x Legal Obligation: We may share your data when the disclosure is required or permitted by international, federal, and state laws and regulations.
- x Service Providers: We use third parties who have entered into a contract with the University to support the administration of University operations and policies. In such cases, we share your data with such third parties subject to the imposition of appropriate safeguards to prevent further unauthorized disclosure.
- x University Affiliated Programs: We may share your data with parties that are affiliated with the University for the purpose of contacting you about goods, services, charitable giving or experiences that may be of interest to you.
- x De- Identified and Aggregate Information: We may use and disclose data in de-identified or aggregate form without limitation.
